

Loving God – Loving One Another – Loving Our Neighbour

Happy Easter! Today is “Maundy Thursday” on the church calendar, taking its name from the mandate (‘mandatum’ in Latin) given by Jesus to the disciples at the Last Supper to “Love one another, as I have loved you.” He then demonstrated the heart of true love, by humbly washing the disciple’s feet, and then celebrating the Last Supper with them. Our way is now to be Jesus’ way, the way of the Cross, the way of humble service to others. And this Sunday I will be sharing how what God does for us at the Cross, He wants to do through us for others, because of the resurrection. But more of that on Sunday! Have a great Easter,
Donald

This Sunday

10am – Celebrating Easter Sunday!
No Highway or Revolution services today

Easter Camp – please pray for the youth at Spencer Park

We value your prayers for this important time, so please pray:

- (1) Life-changing Encounters with God!
- (2) Unity & community under the Northcity Banner
- (3) That there would be heaps of fun and laughs!
- (4) Protection - physically & spiritually

Next Sunday 10am guest speaker Myan Subrayan

Myan is an author, a corporate trainer, speaker and life coach He is a conference speaker with Promise Keepers and founder of Hope 2 Overcome Ministries. Born into a Hindu family in South Africa, he became a Christian in 1994. He has authored 3 books with his recent one being an autobiography of former All Black Inga Tuigamala. Myan has a powerful testimony on living under the oppressive apartheid system which he uses to inspire and motivate many to overcome the obstacles that they may be facing.
