

Loving God – Loving One Another – Loving Our Neighbour

Easter Camp

What a fantastic event for over 85 of our young people and leaders. Several committing and recommitting their lives to the Lord, and the environment created of belonging and ‘togetherness’ was a credit to all those involved. Well done team!

This Sunday 10am guest speaker Myan Subrayan

Myan has played professional cricket and soccer, is an author, corporate trainer, speaker, and life coach. Born into a Hindu family in South Africa, he became a Christian in 1994. He has authored 3 books with his recent one being an autobiography of former All Black Inga Tuigamala. Myan has a powerful testimony on living under the oppressive apartheid system which he uses to inspire and motivate many to overcome the obstacles that they may be facing.
